Now the bad news - Lyte's last newsletter

Well, not really!! But we wont be doing any more printed newsletters. We have decided to follow our clinic colour and turn as green as possible by reviewing our carbon footprint. From now on, just as we use high technology to gain results in the clinic, we will be embracing technology to inform you of our year of offers, prizes and surprises. We anticipate sending out an email and a text monthly to let you know of our offers and promotions through out our birthday celebration.

We respect your privacy and to be perfectly honest really don't like receiving material that doesn't interest us in any format. So if you do not wish to receive texts or emails from us, can you call or email us and we will delete you from our list.

Obviously, you will understand that opting out also means opting out from the major prize draw.
